Dear Dr. David:

This is to respectfully submit our narrative report on our participation to the seminar/training entitled 4th Young Journalists Press Freedom Congress (YJPFC IV) in celebration of the National Press Freedom Day on August 29, 2025 (Friday), at Priscilla Hall, TSU Hotel, Tarlac State University - Lucinda Campus, Tarlac City, Tarlac.

- Highlights of the training/activity

The Young Journalists Press Freedom Congress (YJPFC) was designed to empower and equip campus journalists with the necessary skills for modern digital and conventional journalism. The YJPFC also offered a comprehensive discussion on digital tools and their application in the digital media and publishing.

The event was attended by 389 delegates from 37 student publications from the entire region.

The program focused on harnessing the potential of fusing traditional and digital media, to foster a new generation of journalists who are adept at navigating the evolving landscape of news and information, ensuring they are well-prepared to contribute to media integrity and press freedom.

Dr. Joselito Delos Reyes of UST talked on Burning Ink: Young Journalist as Torchbearers of Truth. He discussed how campus paper advisers and journalists can respond to the task of defending press freedom, encouraging honest and ethical reporting. Meanwhile, Mr. Jericho De Leon of The MLUC Voice expounded on Inside the Newsroom: Managing People, Upholding Principles.

During the awarding ceremony, Sinukuan Gazette was able to take home 15 awards:
The following are the awards obtained by the publication:
